OUR CHAPEL

You will hear our daily plea for peace at noon hour when students of C. C. H. S. drop in to say the rosary.

Dedication

It is appropriate that we, the seniors and first graduating class of Central Catholic High School, sincerely dedicate our 1951 annual to our first principal —Reverend Father Patrick A. Moran. Through his whole-hearted unselfish endeavors in our behalf he has guided us in the pursuit of the spiritual, the intellectual, and the social. During this, our first year at Central, Father Moran has worked with altruistic zeal in the interests of each of us as well as that of our school. We shall cherish ever his guidance toward the Good, the Beautiful, and the True.

MOST REVEREND
WILLIAM J. CONDON, D.D.
Bishop of Great Falls

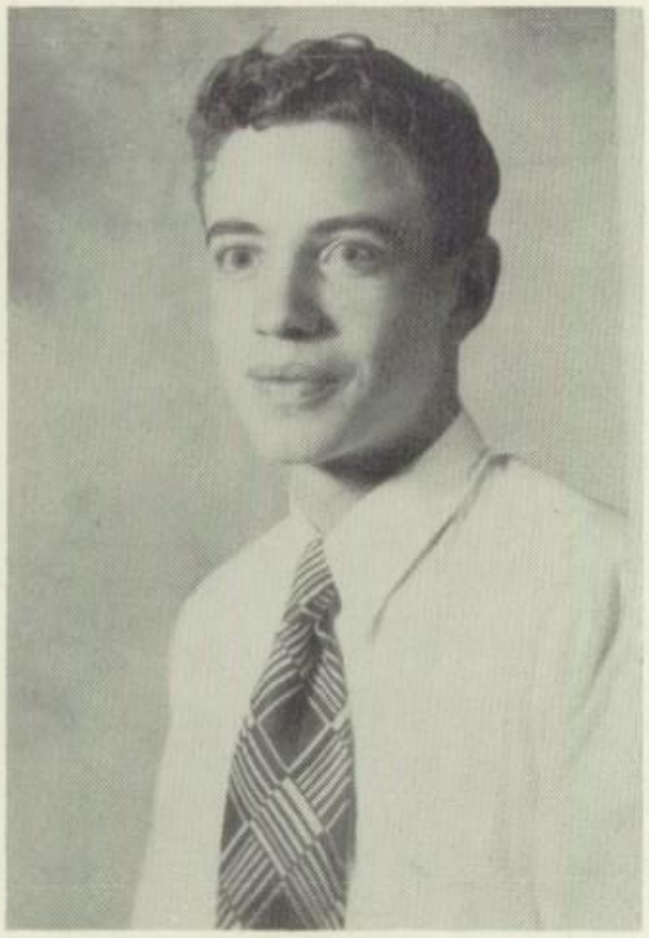
First come, first served. You can count on Sister Regina, our Secretary-Treasurer, to reserve a place for you on the bus to our out-of-town games.

Our school nurse, Mrs. Knopp, gives the T. B. patch test.



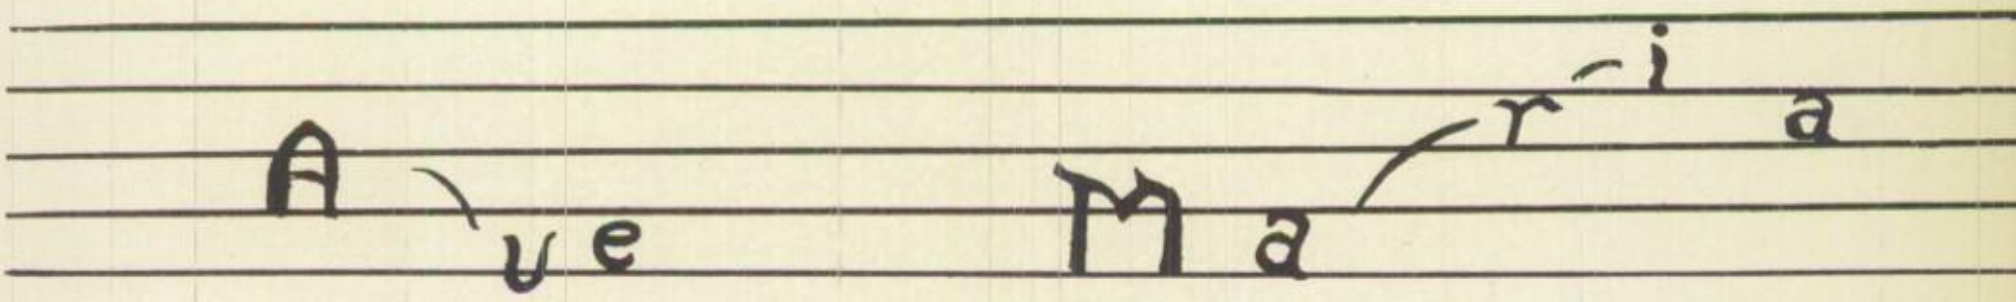
In Memoriam

We, the Class of '51, wish to pay tribute to our former classmate and friend—Richard Ryan—whom God called to his eternal reward during our sophomore year.

Dick was a leader in many school activities taking active part in the various functions, especially sports.

Truly—he will long be remembered in the prayers and ideals of us, his classmates.

Seniors



Ave Maria, these graduates ask your guiding light
To find vocations through God's might.

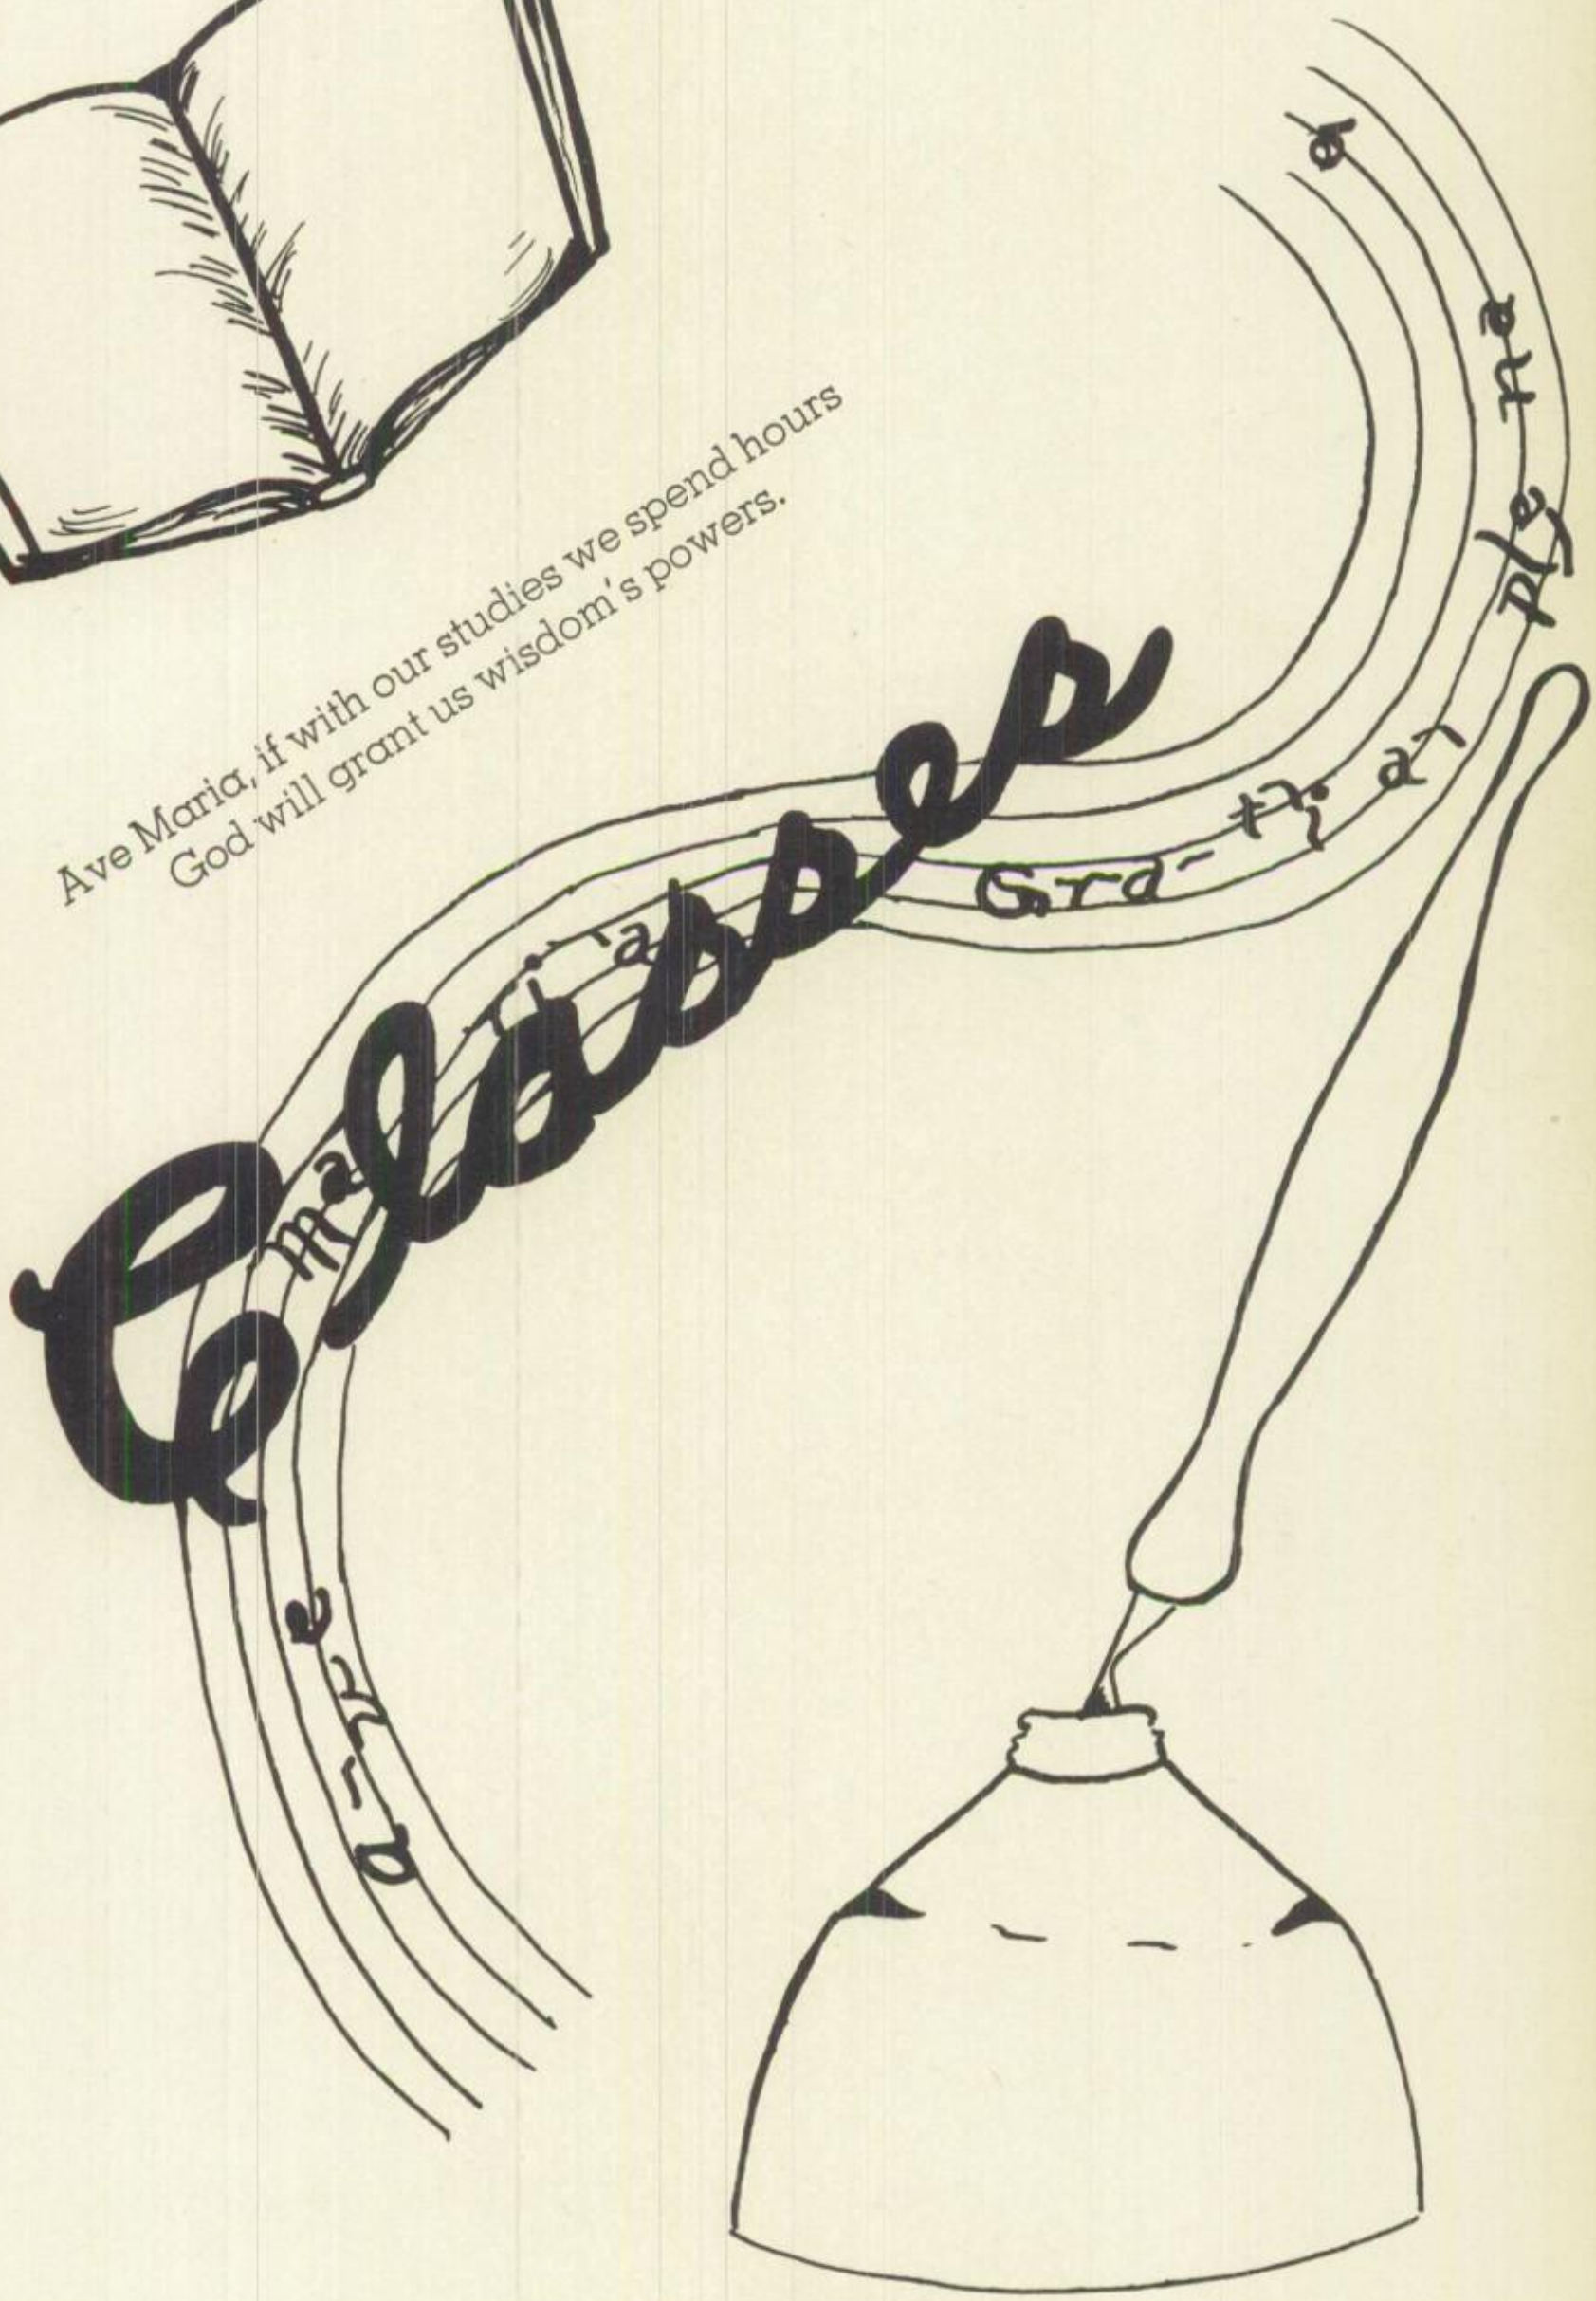
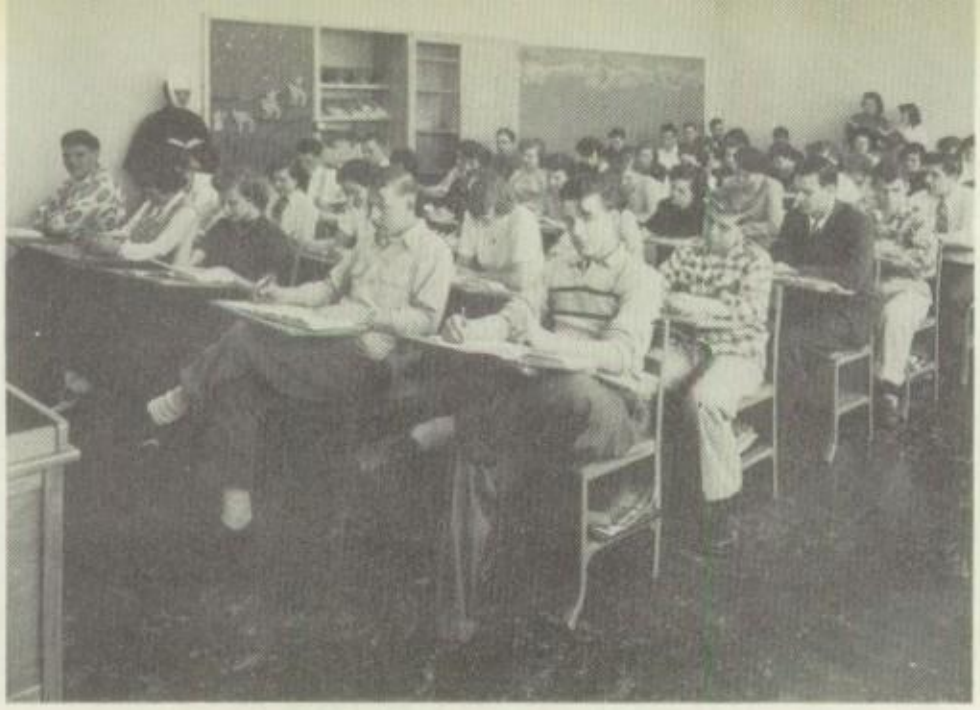
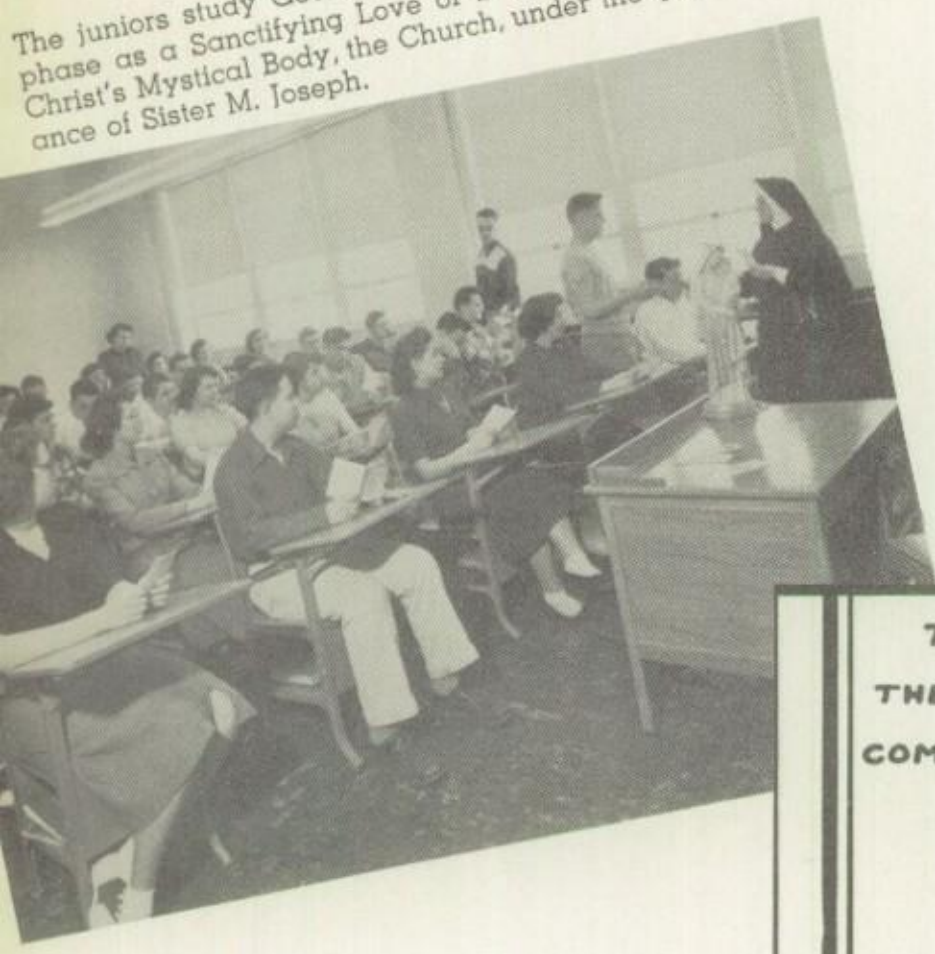
Ave Maria, if with our studies we spend hours
God will grant us wisdom's powers.



Sister Mildred Marie teaches the seniors to know and love the Blessed Virgin in fulfillment of the objective of the senior year.



The juniors study God's great love for man in its phase as a Sanctifying Love of the Holy Spirit in Christ's Mystical Body, the Church, under the guidance of Sister M. Joseph.



Mother Margaret Mary's junior religion class studies about the Third Divine Person, the Holy Spirit.

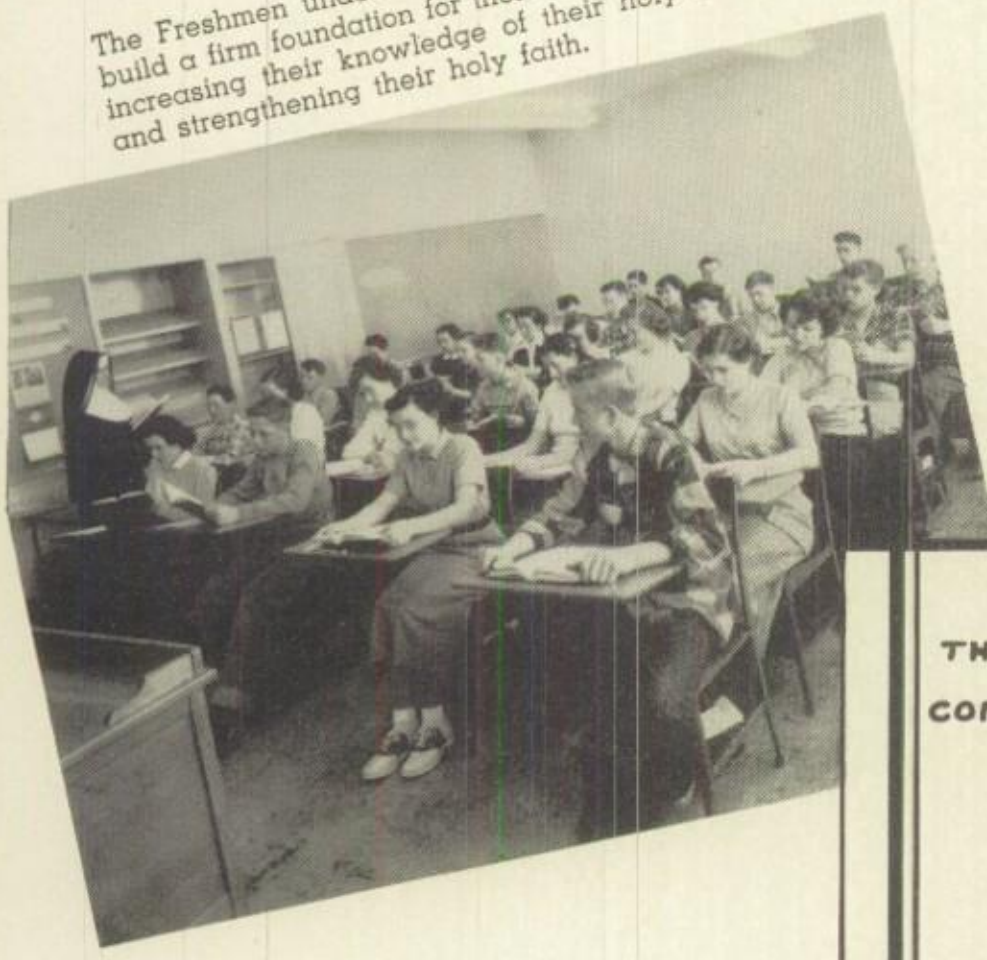
Religion

With the assistance of Father Arbanas the Sophomores see how deep God's love for us is by studying the charity that is in the heart of God the Incarnate Son—Jesus Christ.

The Sophomores investigate God's love for man as the redeeming love of God the Son, under Mother M. Angela.

The Freshmen under Sister M. Josephine learn to build a firm foundation for their hope and love by increasing their knowledge of their holy religion and strengthening their holy faith.



Mother Monica explains that God is not only the source from which we come, but also the goal towards which we must strive.

OUR QUEST
FOR HAPPINESS
BOOK FOUR

Sister Margaret of Providence explains to the Freshmen that to attain the supernatural happiness which all men seek we must love and possess God.

Religion

Mr. Schulz explains how unity has been a major factor in the progress of the United States.

Social

Father Moran's sociology class finds the study of our federal government very intricate.

Mother Mary Laurence's world history class find a special interest in Asia.

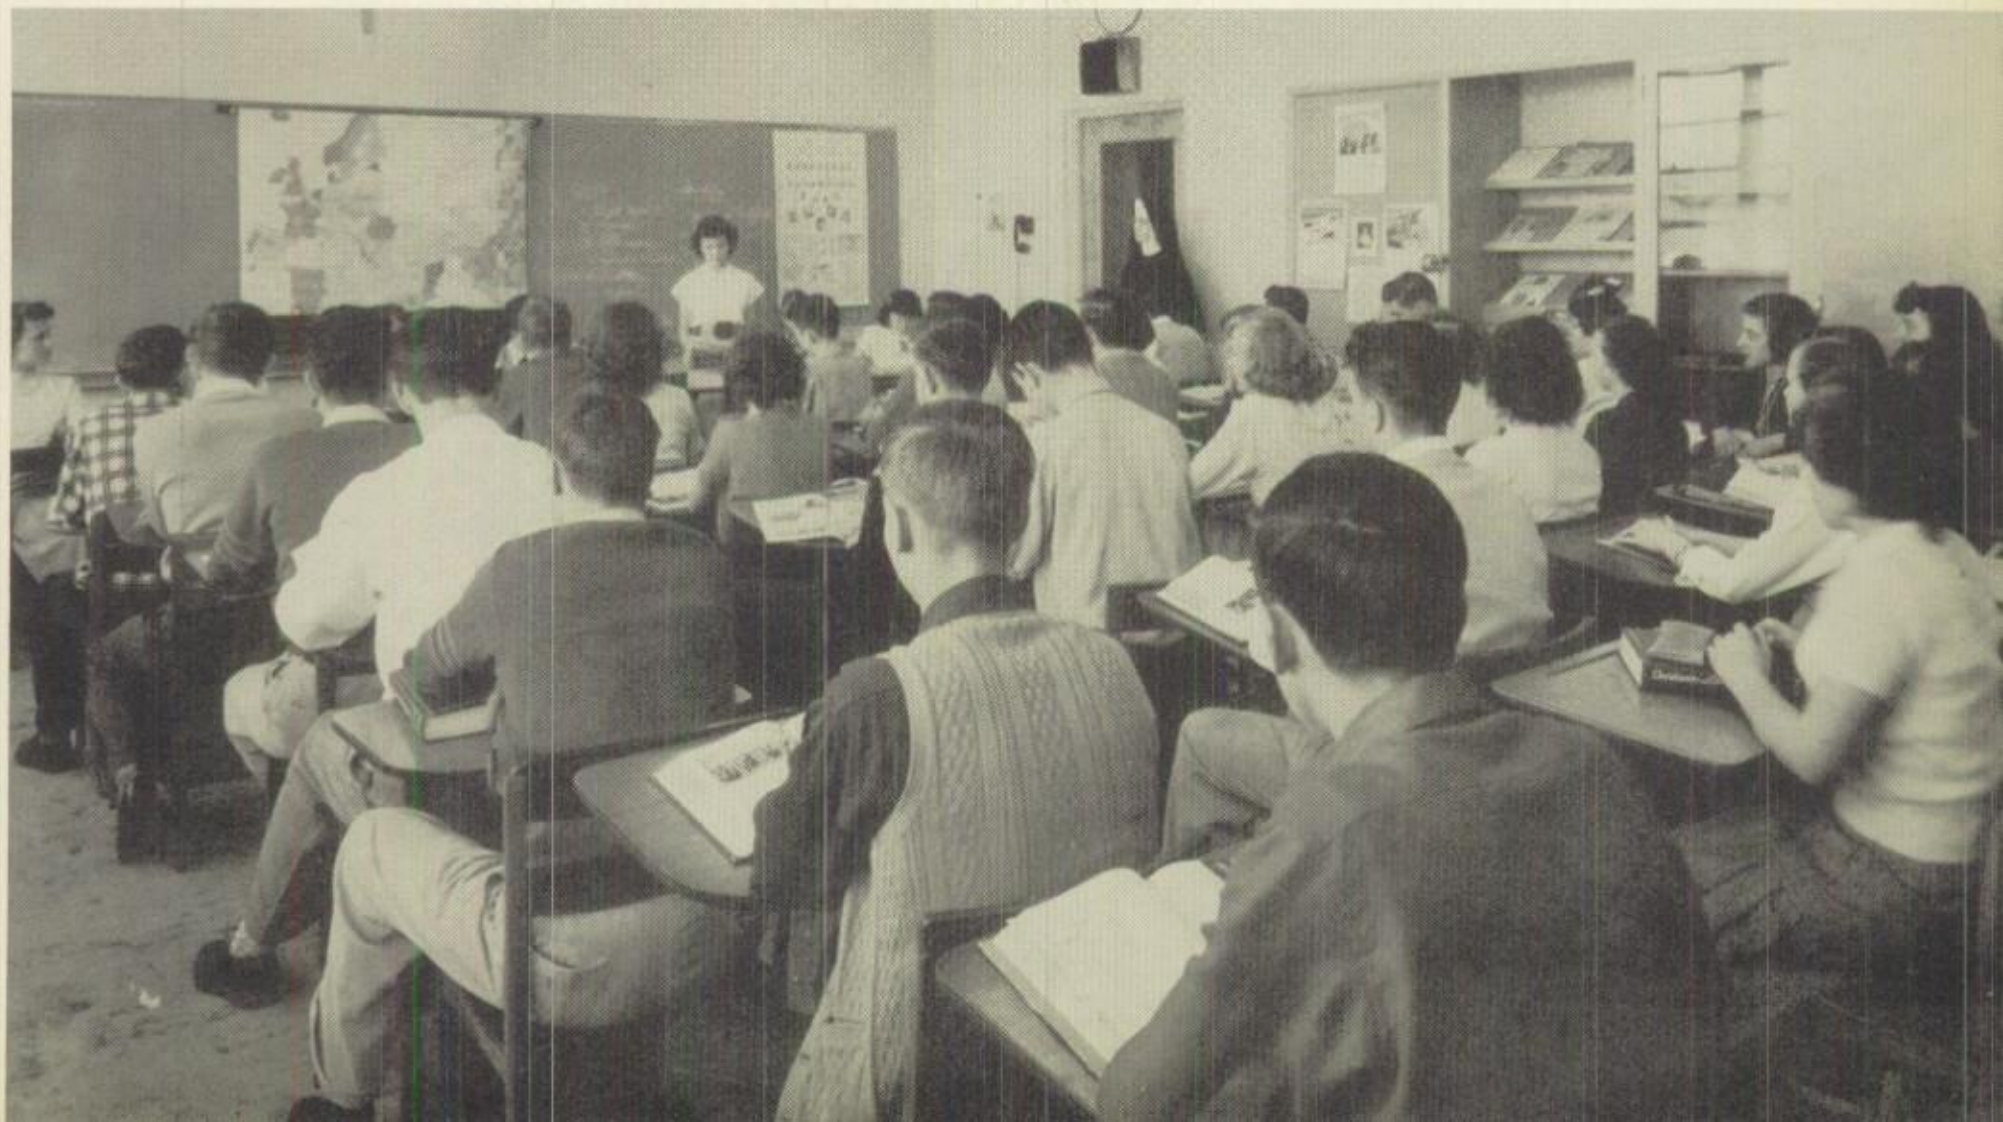
Science

Sister Angela's world history class show the strategic positions of the United States.



Science

Here Sister Mary Agnes' seventh period biology class demonstrate that they have accepted the challenge of search and research in the survey of living things.

Physicists under the direction of Sister M. Helen determine the mechanical advantage of pulleys and the inclined plane.

These metallurgists listen attentively as Sister Margaret of Providence explains the Frasch method of obtaining sulfur.

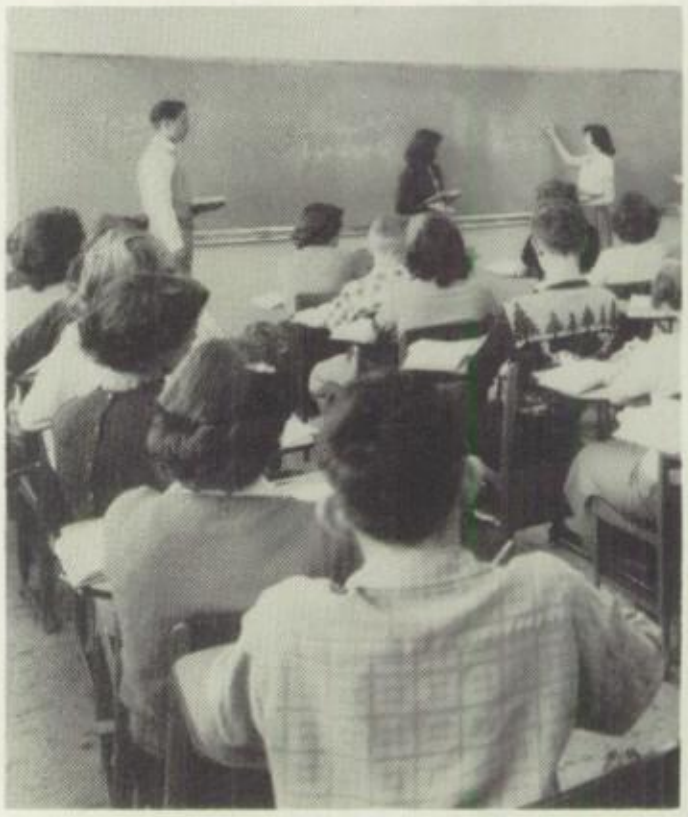
Science

Every cake guaranteed, and only fool-proof methods put into practice here will insure a future of successful baking for these future Homemakers of America.

"The Proof of the Pudding is in the Eating."

To sew a fine seam — to judge a garment well made—These are two of the permanent joys resulting from a well developed skill in the art of clothing construction.

Sister M. Carmelita's trigonometry class has finally solved that famous 29th problem.



Mother Mary Monica explains a few combination equations.

Mathematics

Sister Mildred Marie explains the importance of understanding theorems.

Hermosa! yo se. Is the response of Sister M. Joseph's Spanish students.

Foreign Languages

Sister Mary John teaches these boys the essentials of mechanical drawing.

The Latin students under Father Arbanas aren't the only ones who can translate "Ad veritatem quariendum" since it is our school motto.

Comm

Through the capable guidance of Sister Mary Carmelita, these B. P. girls have learned to fulfill the purposes of the club which are: to assist in the library when needed and to teach others how to use and better appreciate their library. A few of the various tasks these girls undertake are: dusting, slipping and shelving books and counting circulation. These B. P. girls are responsible for the cleverly worked out bulletin boards and displays found in the library at C. C. H. S.

Congratulations to last year's winners, Bob Pizzini, Jerry Rutan, Jerry Greenan, Virginia Pinski, and Joan Bodner for bringing back the State Sweepstake Trophy.

MODERATOR OF ATHLETICS FATHER ARBANAS

Father Arbanas was born in Yakima, Washington. He attended grade school at Wapto, Washington, and came to Montana in 1940, where he entered high school at Great Falls. In 1941 he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. Father was ordained in May, 1948, by the Most Reverend William J. Condon at Saint Ann's Cathedral.

At Central Father Arbanas teaches Latin and Religion and is Vice Principal. (This job keeps Father busy chasing after kids all day long.) Father Arbanas is also assistant at Saint Ann's.

ASSISTANT COACH FATHER HERETICK

Father Heretick was born in North Braddock, Pennsylvania. He received a B. A. degree in philosophy at Mount St. Mary's and completed his theology at Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon. Father was ordained June 12, 1947, at Baltimore, Maryland. After having taught vacation school in the Great Falls Diocese, during the summer for three years, Father Heretick took up actual residence at Glendive in July, 1947. Father came to Great Falls in 1948. Besides serving as assistant to the coach, Father is district C. Y. C. moderator and assistant pastor at St. Ann's.

COACH JOHN SCHULZ

Mr. Schulz was born in Gladium, Michigan. He graduated from Notre Dame in 1937. There he received a football letter and a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. After graduation Mr. Schulz was athletic director at the Heisey until 1942, when he went to Big Sandy High School and then to Gladium High School, each for one year as coach. He returned to Great Falls and served as athletic director at the Junior High. Mr. Schulz then went to Saint Mary's, and now at Central, besides being coach and athletic director, he teaches history.

ASSISTANT COACH EMIL TABARACCI

Mr. Tabaracci was born in Great Falls and attended high school here. At Montana University Tabby studied business accounting and went out for football. He earned his letter in 1937, '38, and '39. In '39 he was captain of the football team and graduated in that year. Mr. Tabaracci joined the Air Force for five years, three of which he was in England. He worked at the County Treasurer's Office for several years and is now employed at the ACM Company in Great Falls.

The Mustangs were one of the best Class B ground gaining teams in the state and were presented with two first-place trophies, one from the Conference and one from the State by Professor Walter Scott, of the Butte School of Mines. He also gave silver footballs to the football squad.

The Mustangs started the season by beating the Cowboys 25-6, next week they traveled to Cut Bank where they downed the Wolves 20-6 in a hard-fought game. Overconfident, the Mustangs were upset 7-0 by the Sugar Beeters. Going back into first place tie with Fairfield and Fort Benton, Central took the undefeated Eagles by the count of 13-6. The Mustangs made "short horns" out of the Fort Benton Longhorns, at Benton, with a 26-6 win. This win placed the Mustangs in first place. Central stayed there by swamping the Bulldogs 32-0. They cinched the Northern Conference Championship by taking the Coyotes 32-13 in the final game of the season.

The Central Mustangs had a mediocre basketball season. They were in fourth place in the conference standings with an 8-6 record. In their non-conference games they won two and lost three. At times the Mustangs were "hot." They dumped unbeaten Cut Bank 47-42 and a highly rated Fairfield team 59-53.

In the Northern B Division tournament, which was held February 22-24 in Central's new gym, the Mustangs, getting innumerable tough breaks, were edged in two heart-breaking tight games. They were upset by Chinook 42-40 and again by Conrad 53-52.

Central's offensive average per game of 47.3 slightly out-did their opponent's average of 46.9.

Great Falls From the Air

Acknowledgment

We, the graduating class of 1951, sincerely thank the businessmen of Great Falls who have been so generous and prompt in helping us finance our first year book from Central Catholic High. We could not have made this publication if it had not been for the kind generosity of our sponsors.

The faculty, the staff, and the entire student body wish to thank all the business firms. Their contribu tions have been greatly appreciated and we sincerely wish God's blessing will be with them in all their undertakings.

Ave Maria, we thank our sponsors always true
And ask blessings for them from you.

Sponsors

We, the Class of '51, appreciate deeply the financial aid offered us by the Business and Professional Men and Women of Great Falls, and we are deeply grateful to them and to all those who have made this year book possible.
